

MARITIME MUSEUM of the ATLANTIC

A PART of THE NOVA SCOTIA MUSEUM

Titanic: The Unsinkable Ship

PERMANENT EXHIBIT

Halifax was the closest major port to the site of the 1912 sinking and all of the recovered bodies were brought to Halifax. View several wooden items from the ship, including a near perfectly preserved deckchair and large pieces of oak carvings.

Cable Ships: Connecting Halifax to Titanic and the World

APRIL – OCTOBER

This special exhibit features the significant roles of the Halifax-based cable ships Mackay-Bennett and Minia and their crews in the Titanic recovery operations. Learn about Halifax's role in the cable ship industry, its links to the Titanic story and wireless trans-Atlantic communications to the world.
